

Notes from CLN Kellogg Initiative Advisory Team Meeting - June 7, 2013

- Bloggers cannot read each other's comments. This should be fixed at this point.
- Copies of the stakeholder map were distributed with a short discussion of the new roles for stakeholders – some re-arranging will need to be done.
  - From whom do we need buy-in for this to be successful?
  - How does trauma fit into the Home Visitors education/professional development?
  - Where does the initiative training fit into the EC lattice?
  - Where does the Higher Ed Task Force fit into the matrix?
- Defining phases was discussed and this will be posted on the blog.
  - Not a static 'model' – the initiative will be adapted as it is engaged
  - Cultural competency is an additional aspect of this initiative that will need to be considered as the initiative is adapted
  - Start with the culture of poverty.
- Systems Summit Agenda:
  - Angela will come up with a name for this event.
  - Angela will talk with stakeholders (specifically YDI) to come up with a date that would work for them.
    - Not 8/28 or 8/29
  - Will need at least 2.5 hours – maybe more
  - Draft Agenda:
    - What is it that CLN Kids is offering
    - Systems aspect of this and small group activities
    - Do the ask – what will you/your organization do with/for this initiative?
- Project Overview:
  - Training
  - Train-the-Trainers
  - Get feedback
  - Make adjustments
  - Move the initiative out to the 3 counties
- Project Implementation Questions:
  - What will be offered?
    - Training materials
    - Support Services
    - Print, dvd and web-based materials
- Project Evaluation Questions:
  - What changes in teachers can be measured?
  - What changes in children can be measured?
